WHAT IS UNU ALUMNI CAFÉ?

Over 6500 UNU alumni are scattered across the world, addressing pressing global issues in respective fields. UNU Alumni Cafe is a new platform to meet those experts, learn from their experiences and share ideas with other participants. Mr. Mark Flanigan will share his challenges in Bangladesh, and also what led him to this career after completing the UNU Capacity Development programme.

"EDUCATION FOR WOMEN IN BANGLADESH"

SPEAKER

MARK FLANIGAN

2010 International Course

Mark serves as a WorldTeach Fellow, with the Pathways for Promise Program at the Asian University for Women (AUW) in Bangladesh.

PATHWAYS FOR PROMISE

Pathways is a new initiative for exceptional Asian women who show promise of becoming leaders in their communities, but who lack the English language and academic skills necessary to enter AUW. It helps these students to succeed academically and socially and to proceed from there to undergraduate studies at AUW.
